Programming

Presenters:

We will have a volunteer in each room to help with set up. They will help with technology, table set up and moving, as well as would love it if they could participate in the program as well. Please bring any mac adaptors, chargers, and items needed to make your program a success. Bring enough resources that if your program makes Top Ten that about fifty more people could do your program than the first session. Therefore, plan for about 70 people when putting on the program. Please remember to have your program go the entire fifty minutes.

Attendees:

Bring a pen and a notebook to sessions. These programs are great to bring back to your institution. Take notes and ask questions. Also fill out the program evaluations as honest as possible. Those determine Top Ten. Also, the evaluations are given to the presenter, so they can learn how to improve their program.

Parking Information

On campus, parking is free all weekends in any lot, except for the lots labeled “Pay Lot” or the Parking Garage. Please refer to the campus map at the end of this guide for parking lot suggestions. Note 5th Street between Chestnut and Wabash is open northbound but not southbound.

Philanthropy Information

During the conference, delegates will be creating cards for athletes that will be put in their rooms upon check in for the Special Olympics Indiana. This event takes place at Indiana State University each summer and the athletes stay in our Residence Halls. Therefore GLACURH will be writing encouraging notes that will be in each room. Please bring your donation check to registration. GLACURH is excited to work with Special Olympics as the conference philanthropy.

Arctic Plunge Information

Please bring a towel because from 4:30-5:00 on Saturday we are going to be able to Plunge into the Arena Pool for delegations that bring donations for Special Olympics. Each delegation chooses one representative to take the plunge into the Arena Pool like the Iconic Special Olympics Polar Plunge. This is just before the break before banquet so the representative can go back and dry off before the closing ceremonies.

Spirit

Where do we turn in displays and roll call music?

Please turn in display and roll call music at the time of check-in! There will be a table just for spirit items! Also email roll call music to glacurh2014.spirit@gmail.com

No cheer zones?

Our no cheer zones for GLACURH 2014 include the technology building and Federal Hall! Please do not use derogatory or hurtful cheers!

How do I earn spirit points?

You can earn spirit points by saying institution/GLACURH cheers outside of No Cheer Zones. Spirit points will be awarded for each scavenger hunt picture submitted. If the spirit chair or her spirit squad find you doing something nice for another delegate, we will award spirit points!

Where do I pick up our display on Saturday?

We will have displays available for pick up in the hotel on Saturday night after closing ceremonies!

Scavenger Hunt!

The scavenger hunt will cover the entire campus! There are some things that you will need to find on Indiana State's campus. Other things, are with your delegation, another delegation, or a combination of both! Spirit points will be awarded for each picture you submit. You can only submit pictures for the scavenger hunt during lunch on Saturday. Your last picture must be submitted by the beginning of the first afternoon programming session!
